WILL STROET OF WILL'S JAMS - YUKON TOUR

In mid-October, the Victoria Gold Yukon Student Encouragement Society's Every Student, Every Day initiative to help increase student engagement and attendance in Yukon classrooms sponsored Juno-nominated musician, former CBC kids' television star and educator Will Stroet of Will's Jams on a comprehensive tour of the Yukon.

In addition to an entertaining, high-energy family show at the Yukon Arts Centre, which celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2022 and helped support the tour, he also performed in elementary schools in Whitehorse, Carcross, Teslin, Watson Lake, Carmacks, Pelly Crossing, Mayo and Dawson City.

This was Will Stroet's fourth tour of the territory and the second one supported by Every Student, Every Day featuring his unique brand of bilingual rock, blues and pop tunes aimed at engaging and entertaining children.

"We were delighted to support Will Stroet and his band on another tour of the Yukon," says Victoria Gold Yukon Student Encouragement Society President Tara Christie. "In 2022, Every Student, Every Day was able to raise and donate $300,000 to directly support more than 20 student attendance and engagement projects throughout the Yukon and we look forward to continuing our efforts to support student success in 2023."

The Every Student, Every Day application form for funding to support student attendance and engagement projects in the 2023-2024 school year will be available later this month.

Other key dates this year include the Victoria Gold Golf Tournament to benefit Every Student, Every Day on July 15 and the Every Student, Every Day annual fundraising gala on October 21. Both events will be held in Whitehorse.
