“Although the pandemic has created challenges around the world, the Victoria Gold team continues to grow,” says company President & CEO John McConnell. “Student employment initiatives were successful this past summer with several Yukon students joining Victoria Gold at the Eagle Gold Mine to gain valuable work experience, while working towards their educational goals.”

The company also remains committed to supporting women in mining, who fill a number of on-site positions at the mine across all departments.

“We strive to acquire the most qualified people for the positions available, while upholding our commitment to Yukon residents and communities to ensure that the staff we choose are the closest fit to the selection criteria for each position and fit with our culture of safety first,” continues McConnell.

VICTORIA GOLD IS PROUD TO HAVE YUKONERS AT WORK

IF YOU ARE A YUKONER WITH MINING EXPERIENCE, WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO CONNECT WITH US.

ABOUT VICTORIA GOLD & THE EAGLE GOLD MINE

The Eagle Gold Mine, now in production, is part of Victoria’s 100-per cent-owned Dublin Gulch Property located approximately 375 kilometres north of Whitehorse and 85 kilometres north, northeast of the Village of Mayo within the traditional territory of the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun. The property is accessible by road year-round and is connected to Yukon Energy Corp’s electrical grid. The mine will be a significant contributor to Yukon employing 350 to 400 people.
