EAGLE GOLD MINE EXTENSION PROJECT

The team at Victoria Gold continues to compile and prepare detailed information required for the Company's Eagle Extension Project submission to the Yukon Environmental and Socio-economic Assessment Board (YESAB).

YESAB's new Pre-submission Engagement (PSE) Process for Executive Committee screenings is coming into effect this month. The YESAB PSE process is designed to gather input and review project requirements in advance of a detailed proposal and its supporting information being submitted for assessment. Victoria Gold's Eagle Extension Project will be subject to this new PSE Process.

The first step in the PSE Process is the submission of a Project Description (PD). The PD allows YESAB to consider the project and develop a Project Proposal Guideline document that will set out the information requirements for the Project Proposal submission. The PD will be available for public review and comment on YESAB's Online Registry once it is submitted. Victoria Gold will be submitting the PD for the Eagle Extension Project to YESAB this month to start the PSE process.

To provide information on the Eagle Extension Project in advance of the PSE Process and in order to include the valuable participation of Yukoners, Victoria Gold developed a proactive and innovative Virtual Open House Forum in November 2020 to ensure all interested individuals and communities can freely and readily review the proposed Eagle Gold Mine Extension Project information and provide their feedback.

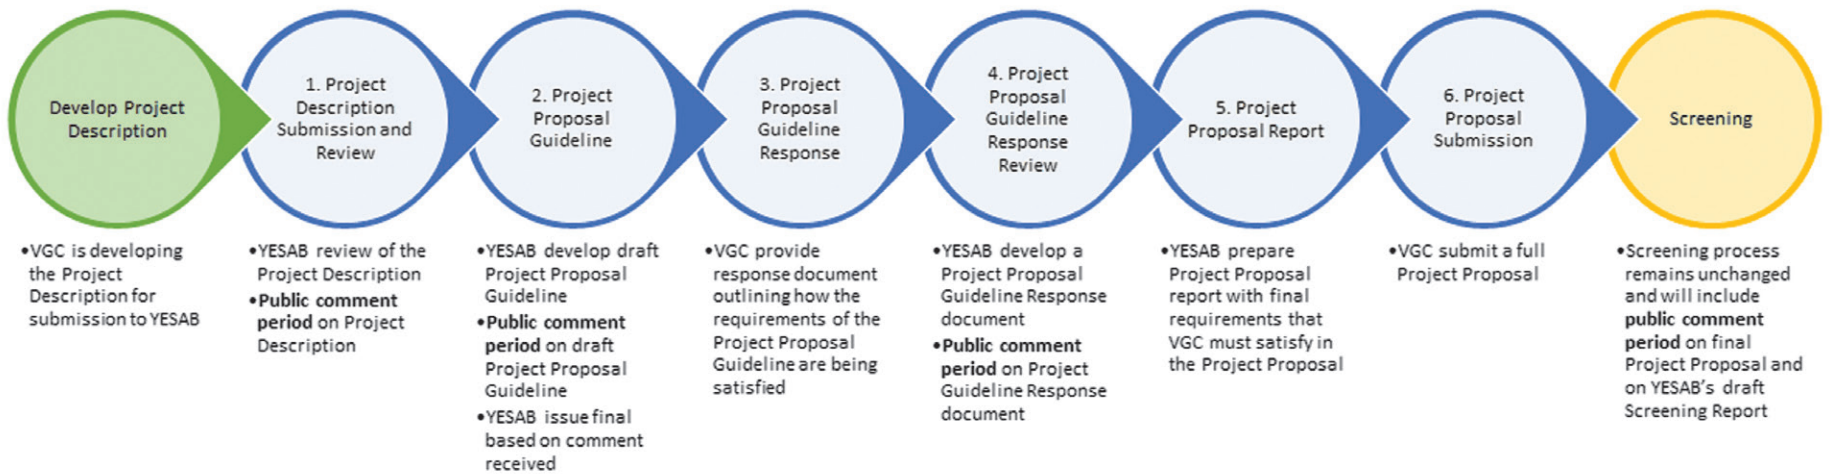

The intent of the Virtual Open House Forum is to provide information through a user-friendly platform, which allows opportunities to comment and ask the Victoria Gold team questions.

"We continue to develop detailed information in support of the Eagle Extension Project and Yukoners' input will play a critical role in this process to confirm it is carried out in a responsible way," says Victoria Gold President & CEO John McConnell. "The information contained on this website, and the valuable feedback we'll receive there, will be used to support information that will be submitted to YESAB."

Everyone is encouraged to review the Eagle Extension Project information and contribute feedback to Victoria Gold via <https://eaglegoldmine.ca/extensionproject/>

"We cannot understate the importance of Yukoners' and community involvement in this process," adds McConnell.
