VICTORIA GOLD'S COMMITMENT TO THE YUKON FIRST NATIONS HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

Victoria Gold is excited to support the 43rd Annual Kilrich Building Centres Yukon Native Hockey Tournament, presented by Victoria Gold Corp, taking place at the Canada Games Centre and Takhini Arena in Whitehorse from Thursday, March 23 to Sunday, March 26.

Victoria Gold has provided the Yukon First Nations Hockey Association, which organizes and hosts this popular tournament, with a multi-year funding commitment to help ensure the sustainability and success of this important event, which is a significant economic contributor to the territory.

The tournament brings together hundreds of Indigenous hockey players from across the North and around the country and this year, features a record 57 teams and the first-ever Women's Division over the event's four days of play.

"We're so pleased this year's Yukon Native Hockey Tournament is back in-person and appreciate all the comradery and skill development that comes with this event" says Victoria Gold President & CEO John McConnell. "We are very proud to be a part of how significantly this tournament contributes to the social and economic wellbeing of Yukoners."

The Yukon First Nations Hockey Association was created in 1973 to promote Indigenous hockey for all ages and provide the opportunity for Yukon First Nations athletes to compete with players from other Canadian provinces and territories in the sport. The Yukon Native Hockey Tournament is the largest Indigenous hockey tournament North of 60.

"On behalf of Victoria Gold, I extend our sincere congratulations to all the organizers and volunteers who make the tournament possible and wish good luck to all the teams," added McConnell.
