VICTORIA GOLD'S COMMITMENT TO THE YUKON FIRST NATIONS HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

Victoria Gold is pleased to renew a three-year sponsorship agreement with the Yukon First Nations Hockey Association (YFNHA) to 2025.

The Victoria Gold presents the 43rd Annual Kilrich Building Centres Yukon Native Hockey Tournament will take place in Whitehorse from March 23 to 26, 2023 hosted by the YFNHA.

This very special event brings together northern communities to celebrate sport, culture and friendship both on and off the ice and contributes significantly to the socio-economic health of Whitehorse.

"Victoria Gold has graciously signed on for another three years of support as the tournament's presenting sponsor," says YFNHA President Michelle Dawson-Beattie. "The team at Victoria Gold shares our association's vision of supporting the longevity of what is truly a Yukon-wide community event. Without the company's support and commitment, this tournament would not be possible."

"Victoria Gold is very proud to once again present this tournament and help bring together hockey players from across the North, Alberta and BC today and for years to come," says Victoria Gold President & CEO John McConnell. "For over four decades, the hard-working volunteer board of the Yukon First Nations Hockey Association has upheld

Founded in 1973, the tournament attracts more sponsors and participants each year. Beyond the annual event, the YFNHA supports both adults and youth to travel within and outside Yukon in order to participate in hockey tournaments throughout the year. The YFNHA also works in cooperation with other organizations to offer hockey skill development camps for all levels of players.
